The royalty and nobility of the Old World and the Far East and the men of high achievement in America who assemble here contribute to the cosmopolitan atmosphere of an institution which represents the hospitality and individuality of San Francisco to the traveler.

The building, which marks the farthest advance of science in service, has now the largest capacity of any hotel structure in the West, and upon completion of the Post street annex will be the largest caravanserai in the world.

REVOLUTION IN SPAIN?

(Associated Press Cable.)
LONDON, Nov. 1.—Rumors are current here that a revolution against King Alfonso of Spain has broken out in Madrid and that the Spanish republicans are attempting a coup similar to that which drove Manuel from Portugal a few weeks ago.

No confirmation of the report can be obtained from Spain, but a great deal of uneasiness exists.

ARMY WANTS AEROPLANES.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 1.—Brigadier-General James Allen, head of the Signal Corps of the United States army, states that the recent experiments with aeroplanes have demonstrated their usefulness and that at least twenty should be procured for army use without delay.

RACING CHAUFFEUR KILLED.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 1.—Al Liv, longtime of California, an expert chauffeur, was killed in an accident during an automobile race here today.

SMALL CROWDS HEAR DEMOCRATS

There were two meetings of the unfettered last evening, one at Kakaako and the other on the corner of School and Liliha streets, but at neither was there marked enthusiasm except perhaps at Kakaako when Baron of soap-box fame told his hearers that they were in the "stomach" of the Republican goat and they should get out.

Boas McCandless was present at both meetings and harped on his alleged immigration, land question and the duplicity of Prince Cupid.

At 8 o'clock the ball was set rolling at both meetings and at Kakaako there were considerably less persons present than at the Democratic meeting there a week ago, 350 persons including women and a large number of children and boys under age being a conservative estimate.

There were children in arms peacefully sleeping and curled up on the ground in the glare of the torches dozens of boys slept without trouble as the deafening (?) cheers of the multitude failed to wake them from their slumbers.

It was the regular thing in the oratorical line at both meetings, the same old arguments of poor pay and class prejudice being brought before the hearers in one guise or another.

Baron of soap-box fame made his debut at a precinct gathering last night at Kakaako and after stating that it was an honor to speak before such a gathering, he said: "Ladies and gentlemen, rise in your strength and act like men, don't work 'for pencey cents' a day when you can get a dollar and a half." It was in his remarks that the whole of Kakaako was in the "stomach" of the Republican goat that he received the only cheers of the evening.

Link, who says Link is all right and everyone else is all wrong, regaled his hearers in their native tongue with a recital of their wrongs, telling the longshoremen that they worked here loading freight on a San Francisco steamer for $1.50 a day and that same freight was taken out of the vessel at San Francisco by men paid $4 a day.

"We have enough laborers in Hawaii now," stormed the candidate for Delegate, "if any more are brought in they will take the bread from your mouths."

He said that forty per cent of the land belonged to the government and yet no poor man could get any of it, this in the face of the fact that in the drawings for land at the Capitol during the past week the available lots in any district have not been more than half applied for.

"A new land law is needed which will permit the poor people to get land," said Link, "and if you send me to Washington as Delegate I will get Congress to pass such a law."

He quoted figures from the tax office in regard to the amount due the government from Kaho, and then went on to a eulogy of himself in which he said he was a working man and had made all his money with his own hands.

Makes The Hair Grow
We are talking about Ayer's Hair Vigor. Just note that word "Ayer's." You are perfectly safe with it. No harm to you or to your hair. Makes the hair grow? It certainly does. Stops falling hair, too. Remember, it's "Ayer's" we are talking about. Ask your doctor about your hair and about Ayer's Hair Vigor. Get his approval. Your own doctor and "Ayer's" make a strong combination. It means faith, confidence, satisfaction.
